PREAMBLE

This Consortium Member Agreement (the "Agreement") has been updated and this version is made effective as of the 04/01/16 (the "Effective Date") by, between, and among, the membership in the SOSSEC Consortium referred to as "Consortium Member" or, collectively as "Consortium Members". The Consortium Members may also be referred to herein individually as a "Party" or collectively, as "Parties."

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, the Parties intend to enter into a Section 845 or 815 Other Transactions Agreement (the "OT Agreement") and/or contracts with federal, state and local Sponsor(s) for the funding of certain research and development to be conducted, in partnership with these entities and other Consortium Members, for the SOSSEC Consortium herein after referred to as the "SOSSEC" in support to the mission of the Department of Defense and related other federal, state and local agencies.

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to ensure quick and efficient delivery of technology solutions to enhance the nation's abilities to support National Security and the defense mission of the United States.

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to concurrently develop, sustain and expand their collective strategic technical superiority;

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to provide a unified and coordinated message to the collective Defense community as to the strategically important role of systems of systems for the support of military operations in a coordinated environment.

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to define programs and obtain program funding that is focused on the development, demonstration and transition of key technologies that will result in Defense/ systems improvements or the fielding of new systems or system upgrades;

ARTICLE II

THE CONSORTIUM

2.1. Background. The Sponsor(s) has expressed a desire for industry and academia to form a consortium to facilitate research and development activities, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) Components, other federal agencies, state and local Sponsor(s) to support areas of military and related activities initiatives. The Sponsor(s) and the Consortium Members, through the company SOSSEC Inc. and through the management structure defined herein, will conduct research and development activities that advance the state-of-the-art as well as technology, scientific and engineering skills in the Field that are needed to develop and transition new technologies into applicable systems. All agent-related management functions contained in this agreement, as approved by the consortium, will be hereafter transferred to SOSSEC Inc. and execution by SOSSEC Inc. as the sole agent of the SOSSEC Consortium to the Sponsor(s).

2.2 Establishment of Consortium. As of the Effective Date of this Agreement, the Parties hereby establish the System of Systems (SOSSEC) Consortium. The SOSSEC Consortium is a Sponsor(s)-oriented non-incorporated enterprise, whose participants are from industry, academia and non-profit organizations, and not-for-profit entities pursuant to this Agreement. The SOSSEC approach is to facilitate a transformation of how industry supports the military: by addressing issues of national interest that have not been effectively solved.

2.3 Consortium Members. As of the Effective Date of this Agreement, and subject to other conditions of membership as further defined herein, the current Consortium Members are those listed herein on Exhibit A. The intent of the Parties is that SOSSEC will consist of members from industry, academic institutions, and non-profit and not-for-profit organizations. The Parties adopt a non-exclusive, open membership policy. The Consortium Members will include Additional Consortium Members in accordance with the provisions contained herein and in the appropriate OT or Contract Agreement. The Consortium, through SOSSEC Inc., will notify the Sponsor(s) of the addition or deletion of Consortium Members as needed but no less than annually. All Consortium Members, regardless of when they become a signatory to this Agreement, have the same rights and obligations hereunder.

2.4 Memorandum of Agreement. This Agreement between Consortium Members in conjunction with the OT Agreement(s) as referenced herein, shall govern the relationships and interaction between Consortium Members.

ARTICLE III

CONSORTIUM MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION

3.1 Organization and Administration. The Consortium shall utilize a number of positions, committees and Integrated Product Teams (IPT) to coordinate the Consortium's activities with the Sponsor(s). The Parties have agreed to elect and utilize SOSSEC Inc. to administer the affairs of the Consortium.

3.1.1 Additional Consortium Members. To facilitate an open membership policy the membership application and approval process described herein may take place throughout the Sponsor(s) Fiscal Year. Membership applications from interested parties, in substantially the same form identified in Exhibit B, and contained on the SOSSEC Consortium website (www.sossecconsortium.com) may be submitted by interested parties from time to time throughout the year. Membership applications, which are not in the form identified in Exhibit B and processed through the website, will not be processed and organizations submitting such non-conforming applications will be required to reapply. Valid membership applications will be promptly reviewed and approved or disapproved by SOSSEC Inc. All Additional Consortium Members shall become a party to this Agreement by executing a counterpart hereof, as well as become a party to the OT Agreement.

3.1.2 Consortium Membership Requirements. The requirements for membership in the Consortium are as follows:

3.1.2.1 Minimum Requirements Directed by the Sponsor(s). At the direction of the Sponsor(s), membership in the Consortium shall be granted to U.S. firms or institutions organized or existing under the laws of the United States, its territories, or possessions. Membership to any agency or instrumentality of a foreign Sponsor(s) and firms, institutions or business organizations which are owned or substantially controlled by foreign Sponsor(s), firms, institutions or individuals, shall be granted on a case-by-case basis at the sole discretion of the U.S. Sponsor(s).

3.2 Consortium Board of Directors. The Consortium shall have a Board of Directors shall govern all business affairs of the SOSSEC Consortium. The Board will oversee planning, organizing and directing of the Consortium. The Board shall consist of a number of members as decided by the Consortium for terms as defined by the Consortium the Board shall appoint a Chairman of the Board who shall speak for the Board in all matters that affect the Consortium, including all work in conjunction with SOSSEC Inc.

3.2.1 Consortium Administrative Organization (CAO) and OT Lead. The Consortium CAO and OT Lead is designated as SOSSEC Inc. with the qualifications and significant experience in management relevant to the goals and objectives of SOSSEC. The CAO/OT Lead shall have a good understanding of this agreement, understand OTA, CRADA, Cooperative Agreements and federal contracting.

3.2.1.1 Responsibilities of the Consortium Administrative Organization. The CAO shall manage and coordinate the day-to-day operational affairs and staff of the Consortium.

The Consortium Board Chairman shall act as the administrative point of contact for the Consortium Members under this Agreement and any amendments hereto.

3.3 General Membership Meetings and Meeting Attendance. General Membership meetings of the Consortium will be conducted four (4) times per year or as appropriate. The location of all meetings will be determined on a meeting by meeting basis by a consensus of the Consortium Members in attendance. It is expected that Consortium Members will volunteer their facilities to periodically host Consortium meetings. Consortium Members agree to attend, four (4) Consortium General Membership meetings per year (to the best of their ability) to continue their membership in the Consortium. Consortium General Membership meeting agendas will at a minimum include Committee and Subcommittee reports discussion of and votes on any amendments to this Agreement, and elections for any open committee positions.

3.4 Consortium Member Voting Rights. Each Consortium Member Organization has one vote. Except as otherwise indicated herein all decisions of the Consortium in the Consortium General Membership meetings or by electronic ballot require the approval of a 2/3 majority of the Consortium Members present at the meeting, or in the case of electronic ballot, eligible to vote.

3.5 Consortium Committees. As soon as practical after the Effective Date of the Agreement, the SOSSEC Board of Directors shall establish a series of committees manned by the Membership and Sponsor(s) to advise on a variety of areas of interest to the Sponsor(s) or the SOSSEC Membership.

3.5.1 Business Development Committee Responsibilities. The Business Development Committee shall have the following responsibilities:

(a) Interface with key DoD components, including Users, Program Executive Officers (PEO's) and Program Managers, Department of Homeland Security, State and Local Emergency Management Organizations and Law Enforcement Organizations, Homeland Defense and other Sponsor(s) agencies to identify requirements for the technology development.

(b) Recommend research and development programs and projects to be conducted to meet identified requirements.

(c) Review evolving technology requirements and user needs and evaluate new opportunities for additional new objectives and Research Initiatives.

3.5.2 Integrated Product Teams (IPTs). The Sponsor(s) and the Consortium Members are encouraged to form IPTs to develop both White Papers for consideration as Research Initiatives in Project Proposals in response to the Sponsor(s)'s Project Proposal Announcement. In the event that IPTs are not formed at the White Paper or Proposal phase, after the selection and award of the Research Projects by the Sponsor(s), the Sponsor(s) and the Consortium Members agree, where applicable, to form IPTs to perform the Projects in response to sponsor requests.. The membership and meetings of the Integrated Product Teams and the IPT leaders will be determined by the Party having the responsibility to perform the specific Project. The IPTs will report progress of the Projects against established objectives to the Consortium. Where possible, the IPT leaders will participate as members of the appropriate Subcommittee.

3.5.3 Diligent Efforts. Both the Sponsor(s) and the Consortium Members conducting Projects in accordance with this Agreement shall use all reasonable efforts and proceed diligently to perform the Projects, including, without limitation, by;

- (a) Using their good faith efforts to allocate a sufficient number of personnel per year,
- (b) Using personnel with sufficient skills and experience, and
- (c) Using adequate equipment and facilities, to carry out their obligations under the Project Agreement.

The Parties agree to conduct activity under the Projects, in a good technical manner, and in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations, and all other requirements to attempt to achieve the objectives efficiently and expeditiously. The Parties further agree that the primary goal of the Program is to develop prototypes, conduct Technology Demonstrations, training, consultation and technology transfer of the technology developed from the Projects. Accordingly, all Parties shall use Diligent Efforts to conduct such research and development efforts as are outlined in the relevant Projects with the goal of accomplishing program goals as soon as practicable. The Parties further agree to use Diligent Efforts to meet the schedules established in the applicable Projects for achieving specific objectives and milestones contained therein.

ARTICLE IV

DATA RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Provisions defining data rights, inventions and patents can be found in the specific OTA Agreement in which a Member organization participates.

ARTICLE V

EXPORT CONTROLS

5.1 Export Controls. This Agreement is subject to restrictions concerning the export of products and/or technology, Confidential Information, Trade Secrets, or Classified and Unclassified Technical Data from the United States which may be imposed upon or related to the Parties to this Agreement from time to time by the Sponsor(s) of the United States. Accordingly, any Consortium Member will not export, directly, or indirectly, any products and/or technology, Confidential Information, Trade Secrets, or Classified and Unclassified Technical Data to any country for which the United States Sponsor(s) or any agency thereof at the time of export requires an export license or other Sponsor(s) approval, without first obtaining the written consent to do so from the Department of State or other agency of the United States Sponsor(s) when required by applicable statute or regulation.

ARTICLE VI

WITHDRAWAL OF CONSORTIUM MEMBERS

6.1 Voluntary Withdrawal. A Consortium Member may voluntarily withdraw from this Agreement at any time and for any or no reason by notice of withdrawal given by such Consortium Member to the Grants Officer 14 calendar days prior to their withdrawal and to the Board of Directors and the other Consortium Members.

6.2 Effect Of Withdrawal.

6.2.1 Rights of a Consortium Member. Except for the rights and obligations with respect to the agreements in a specific OTA, and/or specific intellectual property agreements between or amongst the Consortium Members, from and after the effective date of withdrawal of a Consortium Member and such obligations of a continuing nature, such Consortium Member shall cease to have any rights or obligations as a Consortium Member under this Agreement.

6.2.2 Continued Funding and Technology Contribution Commitment. In the event of the withdrawal of a Consortium Member pursuant to this Article VI, such Consortium Member's rights and obligations pursuant to any executory Project Awards, including but not limited to, continued funding and technology contribution commitments shall continue in accordance with the specific terms and schedule of the Project Award under the OT Agreement or until the Sponsor(s) and Consortium Member come to agreement to terminate the Award, whichever is first.

ARTICLE VII

TERM, RENEWAL, AND TERMINATION

7.1 Term. This agreement shall continue for a period of five (5) years from the Effective Date of this Agreement.

7.2 Material Breach or Default by a Consortium Member. If a Consortium Member materially breaches any material warranty, term or condition of this Agreement, any other Consortium Member may provide notice of such material breach to the CAO/OT Lead. The CAO/OT Lead shall report same to the consortium board of directors that shall review the facts of the willful material breach or default and determine whether the Consortium Member alleged to have materially breached any material term or condition of this Agreement has, in fact, committed such a material breach. Upon such decision, the CAO/OT Lead shall make notification to the offending Consortium Member. If the Consortium Member fails to remedy such material breach within ninety (90) days after receipt of such notice of such material breach from the CAO, at its option, and in addition to any other remedies that the Consortium may have in law or equity, terminate this Agreement with respect to such Consortium Member. If the CAO are unable to reach agreement, the facts of the willful material breach or default shall be submitted for resolution pursuant to Article X.

ARTICLE VIII

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

8.1 Representations and Warranties of All Parties. Each Party represents and warrants to the other parties that: (a) it is free to enter into this Agreement; (b) in so doing, it will not violate any other agreement to which it is a party; and (c) it has taken all action necessary to authorize the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance of its obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

LIMITATION AND CROSS-WAIVER OF LIABILITY

9.1 Waiver of Liability. Consortium Members waive all claims against any of the entities or persons part of this Agreement and additional Consortium Members that are based on alleged damages relating to and arising out of activities under this Agreement and the injured Consortium Member suffers such damages by virtue of its involvement under this Agreement.

9.2 Subcontractors or Sub-entities. The Consortium Members agree to extend the waiver of liability as set forth above to subcontractors or sub-entities at any tier under the Project Awards by requiring them, by written contract, purchase order or otherwise, to waive all claims against any and all Consortium Members.

9.3 Inapplicability. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this article, this waiver of liability shall not be applicable to:

- (a) Claims between a Consortium Member and its related entities or claims between the Sponsor(s)'s related entities (however, claims between the Sponsor(s) and the Consortium Members claims between the members and SOSSEC, Inc., or vice versa, are not included within this exception),
- (b) Claims made by a natural person, his/her estate, survivors or subrogates for injury or death of such natural person,
- (c) Claims for damage caused by willful misconduct,
- (d) Intellectual property claims.

9.4 Limitation of Liability. In no event will any party hereto be liable for any special, incidental, consequential or indirect damages arising in any way out of this Agreement, however caused and on any theory of liability. This limitation will apply even if the other party or parties hereto have been advised of the possibility of such damage. In no case shall the Sponsor(s)'s or any Consortium Members' financial liability exceed the amount obligated by the Sponsor(s) or committed as a cash contribution or in-kind contribution by a Consortium member under the Project Award. Nothing in this Article IX shall be construed to create the basis of a claim or suit where none would otherwise exist.

ARTICLE X

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

10.1 Dispute Resolution Process. The Parties recognize that disputes as to certain matters may from time to time arise during the term of this Agreement, which relate to a Party's rights and/or obligations hereunder or thereunder. It is the objective of the Parties to establish procedures to facilitate the resolution of disputes arising under this Agreement in an expedient manner by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, the Parties agree to follow the procedures set forth in this Article X if and when a dispute arises under this Agreement.

10.2 Dispute Resolution Representatives. In the event of disputes between the Parties, including disputes among the Consortium Members' representatives to the Consortium Board of Directors which such representatives are unable to resolve, a Party seeking to resolve such dispute will, by written notice to the other, have such dispute referred to their respective executive officers designated below or their successors, for attempted resolution by good faith negotiations within fourteen (14) days after such notice is received. Said designated officers are as follows:

For the Consortium Member: Designated Senior Executive

For the Consortium: The Consortium Chairman of the Consortium Board of Directors

In the event the designated officers are not able to resolve such dispute, either Party may at any time after the 14-day period invoke the provisions of paragraph 10.3 hereinafter.

10.3 Alternative Dispute Resolution. Following settlement efforts pursuant to paragraph 10.2, any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the validity, construction, enforceability or performance of this Agreement, including disputes relating to alleged breach or to termination of this Agreement, other than disputes which are expressly prohibited herein from being resolved by this mechanism, shall be settled by binding Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") in the manner described below:

10.3.1 ADR Request. If a Party intends to begin an ADR to resolve a dispute, such Party shall provide written notice (the "ADR Request") to the other Party informing such other Party of such intention and the issues to be resolved. From the date of the ADR Request and until such time as any matter has been finally settled by ADR, the running of the time periods contained in Article VII under which Party must cure a breach of this Agreement shall be suspended as to the subject matter of the dispute.

10.3.2 Additional Issues. Within ten (10) business days after the receipt of the ADR Request, the other Party may, by written notice to the Party initiating ADR, add additional issues to be resolved.

10.3.3 No ADR of Patent Issues. Disputes regarding the scope, validity and enforceability of patents shall not be subject to this paragraph 10.3.3 nor shall it be subject to paragraph 10.4, and shall be submitted to a court of competent jurisdiction.

10.4 Arbitration Procedure. Any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement shall be finally settled by binding arbitration in accordance with the then current rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

The arbitration shall be conducted by three (3) arbitrators with experience with the issue under consideration, one (1) each to be appointed by the Parties in Dispute and a third being nominated by the two (2) arbitrators so selected or, if they cannot agree on a third arbitrator, by the President of the American Arbitration Association. Such arbitration will take place, unless otherwise determined by a requisite majority of the Consortium Board of Directors. The arbitrators shall apply the law of the State of Massachusetts to the merits of any dispute or claim, without reference to rules of conflicts of laws. Judgment on any award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The Parties agree that, any provision of applicable law notwithstanding, they will not request, and the arbitrators shall have no authority to award punitive or exemplary damages against any Party. Nothing in this Article 10 shall limit a Party's right to seek injunctive relief with respect to a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement.

10.5 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, construed, and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Massachusetts, without reference to principles of conflicts of laws.

ARTICLE XI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

11.1 Independent Contractors. The relationship of the Parties established by this Agreement is that of independent contractors and nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to (i) give any of the Parties hereto the power to direct or control the day-to-day activities of another Party hereto, (ii) constitute the Parties as partners, joint ventures, co-owners or otherwise as participants in a joint or common undertaking, or (iii) allow any of the Parties hereto to create, discharge or assume any obligation on behalf of another Party hereto for any purpose whatsoever.

11.2 Parties Bound. This Agreement, including the indemnification provisions, Article X, shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto, their respective successors, assigns, legal representatives and heirs.

11.3 Assignment. This Agreement may not be assigned or transferred by any of the Parties hereto without the prior written consent of the other Parties; provided, however, that a Consortium Member may assign its rights and delegate its obligations (i) to any affiliate of such Consortium Member (although, in the event of any such assignment and delegation, the assigning Consortium Member shall remain primarily liable for its obligations hereunder) and (ii) to a purchaser of all or substantially all of the business of such Consortium Member to which this Agreement relates by merger, sale of assets or otherwise. If the Consortium Member, after the assignment or purchase cannot meet the requirements for Consortium membership as called out in the Consortium Member Agreement, the Consortium Member will be considered to have voluntarily withdrawn from the Consortium in accordance with Article VI, herein.

11.4 Affiliates. The Parties hereto acknowledge and agree that Consortium Members may elect to carry out certain activities required or permitted pursuant to this Agreement by or through their affiliates. This Agreement shall be binding on the affiliates of Consortium Members in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as if such affiliates were parties to this Agreement.

11.5 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire and only agreement between the Parties relating to the subject matter hereof, and all prior negotiations, representations, agreements and understandings are superseded 11.8 Counterparts. This Agreement may only be amended by a written instrument executed by the Parties.

11.6 Amendment. This Agreement may only be amended by a written instrument executed by the parties

11.7 Waiver. No waiver of any rights shall be effective unless assented to in writing by the Party to be charged, and the waiver of any breach or default shall not constitute a waiver of any other right hereunder or any subsequent breach or default.

11.8 Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement becomes or is declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, unenforceable or void, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect without said provision; provided that no such severance of any provision shall be effective if the result of such materially changes intended purposes of this Agreement to the Parties.

11.9 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. All Consortium Members shall receive a copy of this executed Consortium Member Agreement and any amendments thereto with the Board of Directors, or its delegate, retaining the originals.

11.10 Public Announcements. Any announcements, press releases or similar publicity (collectively, "Announcements") with respect to the execution of this Agreement shall be submitted to and agreed upon by the Consortium Members Board of Directors in advance of such Announcement. Each Consortium Member shall have the right to review and request changes to any Announcements.

11.11 Disclosure. Except as specifically authorized in accordance with paragraph 11.10, the Parties agree that the existence and terms of this Agreement shall be maintained in confidence by all Parties, except that any Party may disclose the terms hereof to the extent required by law (including without limitation pursuant to the requirements of U.S. securities laws), provided that such disclosure under this paragraph 11.10 shall, to the extent legally permissible, be in the form of the redacted version of this Agreement to be agreed upon by the Consortium Board of Directors.

11.12 No Third Party Beneficiary Rights. The Consortium Members agree and acknowledge that the Sponsor(s) is not intended to be, and shall not constitute, a third party beneficiary of the this Agreement, which is intended exclusively as an agreement among, and for the benefit of, the Consortium Members.

11.13 Force Majeure. No failure or omission by the Consortium Members in the performance of any obligation of this Agreement shall be deemed a breach of this Agreement or create any liability if the same shall arise from any cause or causes beyond the control of the Parties, including, but not limited to, the following: acts of God; acts or omissions of any Sponsor(s); any rules, regulations or orders issued by any Sponsor(s)al authority or by any officer, department, agency or instrumentality thereof; fire; storm; flood; earthquake; accident; war; rebellion; insurrection; riot; and invasion and provided that such failure or omission resulting from one of the above causes is cured as soon as is practicable after the occurrence of one or more of the above-mentioned causes.

11.14 Order of precedence. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and the terms set forth in the OT Agreement, the inconsistency shall be resolved by giving precedence in the following order: (1) the OT Agreement, (2) Attachments to the OT Agreement other than the Consortium Member Agreement, (3) Other documents listed or references (numbers 1 through 4) in the OT Agreement, and (4) the Consortium Member Agreement.

11.15 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, and all Exhibits referred to herein, embody the entire understandings of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall supersede all previous communications, representations or understandings, either oral or written between the Parties relating to the subject matter hereof.
